Notes

Robert B Wall

A long time member of Sierra Club passed away on February 2nd 2019. He could often be seen before meetings sitting on the side counter where many members enjoyed talking with him.

Bob led photo field trips for many years.

Great Meetings

Our SCC meetings have had some great photography this year. March 7th is the first Travel Competition of the year which ends the first round of division competitions.

If you missed entering any divisions the next round from April 4th through May 14th is your chance to do make-ups. The hand books will continue to be handed out at the March Meetings.

Try to come and pick them up so they won't have to be mailed.

SPECIAL GUEST GARY CRABBE

Making the Image

Creating Dramatic, Natural Looking Landscapes & Travel Photos
Quickly & Easily Using
Adobe Lightroom & Photoshop

Join us for a special presentation by renowned landscape and travel photographer Gary Crabbe. Gary will demonstrate his professional workflow for the import, selection, post-processing editing, and output of travel and landscape photography using Adobe Lightroom and Photoshop. Note: This isn't about creating those uber-epic 'fantasyscape-style' images that take hours of intensive effort, but rather effectively creating images that capture attention yet still feel dramatic yet ... more real.

Gary's client and publication credits include the National Geographic Society, TIME Magazine, New York Times, Forbes Magazine, The North Face, The Nature Conservancy, The Carnegie Museum of Natural History, and pro-bono work for the Make-A-Wish Foundation and the Int'l Committee of Lawyers for Tibet. Gary also has seven published books to his credit, including the IBPA Gold Medal award-winning "Photographing California: Vol. 1-North." Most recently, Gary's work was selected to be featured on a nearly unprecedented 7 USPS Forever Stamps.

COST:

For members of the Sierra Camera Club, there is no charge.

For non-members, the charge to attend is $10 which must be paid in order to RSVP. Credit cards are accepted. Go TO:
